RELEVANT EXPERIENCE & FIELDWORK

- 2024 Research Assistant to Prof. Pauline Jones, University of Michigan.
As part of a project on protest narratives in the aftermath of the 2022 Kazakh unrest, I was responsible for using computational methods to bulk-translate and create hand-codeable documents from newspaper reports in Kazakh and Russian.

- 2022–2024 Teaching and Research Assistant, Saïd Business School, University of Oxford.
As part of the core research team of the Oxford Space Initiative, I conducted research on innovation in the nascent Space economy. I also moderated a practitioner panel on the space ecosystem.
- 6-12/2019 Principal Investigator, Hong Kong Anti-ELAB Movement Surveys.
In 2019, I conducted several waves of surveys at protest sites in Hong Kong, a field experiment, as well as a representative household survey. The data sheds light on protest mobilization and the emergence of new 'mobilization technology' in Hong Kong. After the passing of the National Security Law, I decided to embargo the data for now.
- 5-8/2019 Principal Investigator, Myanmar Civil Society Survey 2019.
I conducted a survey on the day-to-day obstacles civil society organizations faced in transitional Myanmar together with the Yangon School of Political Science (YSPS). The project was funded by the National Endowment for Democracy (NED).
- 2017-2020 Principal Investigator, Myanmar Political Participation Survey.
I conducted a representative public opinion survey with a focus on unconventional political participation (N=1200 in-depth face-to-face interviews) in Yangon, Myanmar in conjunction with the YSPS. Among other things, I secured funding, found local partners, recruited and trained interviewers, liaised w/ the government, designed and evaluated the multi-stage sampling strategy, designed the questionnaire w/ multiple embedded experiments, and digitized the paper booklets. I spent several months in the field between 2017 and 2020. The booklets were lost in the wake of the military coup but about half were recovered and moved to Thailand in 2025. The survey is likely the last survey that could ask these highly sensitive questions in Myanmar.
- 10/2017- Research Assistant to Kalypso Nicolaidis, Professor of International Relations.
Since 2017, I have been assisting Prof Nicolaidis with her online presence as well as research, first at Oxford and now at the European University Institute (EUI).
- 8-9/2018 Visiting Researcher at the Southeast Asia Research Centre (SEARC)
City University of Hong Kong
- 2-4/2017 Research Intern at French Centre for Research on Contemporary China (CEFC),
Hong Kong
- 2-4/2016 Public Policy Research Intern at the Our Hong Kong Foundation (OHKF),
Hong Kong
